Dear Recruitment Team,

I am writing to you with great enthusiasm to submit my application for the Junior-Trainee Full-Stack Developer position at your company. As an experienced and passionate chef, and now a Junior-Trainee Full-Stack Developer with 3 years of experience in IT, I am excited about the opportunity to bring my skills and experience to the dynamic world of web development.

For over 11 years, I worked in high-responsibility positions in the culinary industry, where I demonstrated my ability to lead teams, manage time efficiently, and solve problems effectively, all while working under pressure to ensure the delivery of high-quality results. My strong work ethic and proactive approach allowed me to stand out in every role I undertook.

After transitioning to IT, I immersed myself in the world of web development, combining formal training at CIEF Formación and IT Academy with self-taught learning. Over the past 3 years, I have gained solid experience in programming technologies such as JavaScript, HTML, CSS, Node.js, and various frameworks, and I've worked on diverse projects that strengthened my full-stack development skills. I'm excited to apply my experience in IT, along with my determination and technical skills, to continue growing professionally in this field.

As a native Spanish speaker, with an A2 level of English and an A1 level of Catalan, I am well-prepared to work in multicultural environments and communicate effectively with colleagues and clients from different parts of the world.
